DETAILED ACTION

Examiner acknowledges receipt of extension of time, amendment A and IDS filed 04/15/02. Claims 1-155 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The rejection of claims 1-155 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Nakamichi et al. (US 5,456,923) is withdrawn because Nakamichi's composition is a dispersion and the generic claims as amended now exclude dispersions.
2. Claims 1-55 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Piergiorgio et al. (US 4,880,623).

Applicants' traversal of the rejection centers on the argument that Piergiorgio's polymers are not used to enhance concentration but rather are used as "a matrix which adds additional sustained release characteristics to a formulation which is already sustained release." Thus, applicants agree, one skilled in the art would not use the polymers of the prior art to enhance bioavailability or concentration of drugs.

3. Applicants' arguments filed 04/15/02 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The claims are directed to a composition comprising a drug and a polymer that applicants have labeled "concentration enhancing." The polymers of the prior art fall within the scope of the polymers that applicants regard as "concentration enhancing." Applicants provided no data showing that the polymers disclosed and taught by Piergiorgio would not enhance drug concentration. Therefore, the rejection is proper.

No claims are allowed.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
